

City Moves To Buy Parking Lot Strip At Marchbanks Park

The city council late last week pushed negotiations for the purchase of about four-eighths of the land owned by the cement contractor bordering Marchbanks Park.

Answering public protest, the council has asked the contractor, Dominic Piccinini, to sell the city room for parking space to accommodate at least 75 cars. This strip sought by the city is 400 feet wide and 88 feet deep, on the North Parkview avenue boundary with the park and running to the Southern Pacific tracks.

If Piccinini agrees to sell the city parking space, he would be left with a strip 290 feet wide fronting the park and 225 feet deep towards the railroad tracks, on the Westlake avenue side of the park.

According to acting City Manager George Watts, both the city and Piccinini have given a tentative okay for mutual access to the park and the commercial operation under the city proposal. A fence would divide the two properties.

Mayor Michael DeBernardi said Piccinini's answer should be known by next Tuesday evening's regular council meeting. Public hearing on Piccinini's request to have the land zoned to industrial has not been set.

The planning commission turned down the zoning request without prejudice, at the same time urging the council to negotiate for at least part of the Piccinini property.

The city recreation commission also had earlier urged the council to do likewise.

The council last May, given an option to buy this Southern Pacific right-of-way for $29,000, informed the railroad that it could not afford the purchase. Piccinini then bought the property and has sought to have it zoned for the warehouse operation. The zoning he seeks would restrict his operation to storage only—a point the council has repeatedly made to citizens who fear that Piccinini would attempt to manufacture cement.

The cement contractor would need a use permit to conduct any other type of commercial operation there.

The city recreation commission also had earlier urged the council to do likewise.

Supt. Ed Morgan, Architects Eye LA Area Schools

High school district Supt. Ed Morgan and architects Falk and Booth will inspect new high schools in Southern California this weekend.

The trio are looking for ideas in construction with the proposed Linda Mar school in mind. Falk and Booth will design the Linda Mar plant for the district.

Morgan will remain in the southland for the California School Superintendents' convention, Sunday through Wednesday in San Diego. He will be joined next week by trustees Ann Eason, Lyle Ingersoll and Ray Whitney, who will attend the California School Trustees' convention, also in San Diego, Wednesday through Saturday.

JEFF HIGH honor graduate Bruce Freeland has been nominated as the top candidate in California for appointment to the 1959 class of the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland. He lives at 156 Irvington Street.

Trustees Mull Names For Coast Hi Schools

Anyone care to suggest names for Jefferson High School District's two planned high schools in Sharp Park and Linda Mar?

All district residents are encouraged to forward names to Supt. Ed Morgan, PL 5-1162; or Principals John Mongan and Glenn South of Jefferson and Westmoor.

Trustees on Monday evening considered the first batch of names submitted by Jefferson and Westmoor students. They are: Cabrillo, Crest-

None Injured In School Bus Accident Here

More than two dozen Vista Mar School tots escaped injury Friday morning at 8:45 o'clock when the Greyhound bus in which they were passengers collided with a station wagon at the Westmoor-Skyline intersection.

Barbara J. Murrell, 38, a hospital worker from Sharp Park, was cited by Officer David Johnstone for running through a red light—the cause of the mishap. Her vehicle, going north on Skyline, was struck in the rear by the bus, causing minor damage.

The driver of the bus, Ernest Himmel, 42, said he was proceeding across the fog-bound intersection "very slowly" after he had stopped for the light while going east on Westmoor avenue from the Palisades.

Scouts Deliver Defense Books This Saturday

All Scouts in the Lake Merced District together with every Cub Scout, Boy Scout and Explorer in San Francisco will mobilize this Saturday for a mass distribution of the civil defense "Handbook for Emergencies," as their final project in the 1958 National Safety Good Turn suggested to the Boy Scouts of America by President Eisenhower.

The activity will be carried out under the leadership of R. Admiral A. G. Cook, USN Ret., director of San Francisco Disaster Council and Corps, who is chairman of the San Francisco Scouts' home safety program.

CIAMPI CHALLENGED Elementary Board 'Prompts' Architect

Architect Mario Ciampi was given an "ultimatum" Monday night by elementary school trustees.

The board's architectural committee recommended that the district hold off naming architects for new schools until they had screened all the applicants, and they gave Ciampi 15 days to bring the progress reports on his projects up to date.

Ciampi, who designed Westmoor High, Olympia, Westlake, Vista Grande and Vista Mar, has been criticized frequently by some members of the school board and parents. In general, they feel the services of other architects should be contacted and are somewhat displeased with the "extravagant" design of Ciampi schools.

Trustee Frank Verducci's motion on the architect situation passed unanimously. The board's architectural committee includes Verducci, Mrs.

Katherine Mullen and Thomas Noonan.

In other main matters Monday, trustees:

1. Unanimously passed resolutions endorsing "no" votes in the November general election on Proposition 16 (the measure to tax non-profit schools) and on Proposition 17 (the move to reduce the state sales and use taxes).

2. Okayed advertising for bids on landscaping work at Vista Mar and Vista Grande schools.

3. Ordered cost study on installing adequate shower facilities at Colma 7-8 and Ben Franklin schools. Mrs. Mullen suggested the board investigate increasing the length of physical education periods.

4. Voted 5-0 to reject an expenditure of $5000, asked by the holding company, for the purchase of the abandoned Bullis property on Bradley

'Fire Week' Demonstrations For Children

Marking "Fire Prevention Week," October 5 to 11, proclaimed officially in Daly City by Mayor Michael DeBernardi, firemen are busy demonstrating their skills and prevention pointers to public and parochial school youngsters.

On Monday, fire department units began their demonstrations at the 13 elementary schools and three parochial institutions. This feature includes putting out "mock" fires.

School children also have prepared posters on fire prevention for the annual contest. Winners will be named this Thursday night by judges at Fire Station 5 in Westlake.

The fire department Monday also opened its annual inspections of Daly City homes. Residents are advised that the visits are voluntary. The firemen have regular check lists. They will inspect garages, basements, utility rooms, electrical circuits, etc.

After long months of unfortunate delays, elementary trustees Tuesday authorized a "package" purchase of $715,000 for three school sites from Zita Corporation in the intended 2000-home St. Francis Heights subdivision.

The bargain—the price was well below the appraisal on the 41 acres of property—will pave the way for the M. Pauline Brown, Daniel Webster and Christopher Columbus K-6 schools.

The McKeeons will deliver the sites completely improved, with streets, sewers, water lines, telephone facilities, etc. Webster and Columbus will be graded by the subdivider, but most of the grading on the less hilly Brown site will be done by the school district.

George McKeeon said readying the sites for delivery to the district will necessitate moving at least one million cubic yards of dirt. He said his company should be able to deliver the Brown and Webster sites within 80 days and the Columbus site, near Skyline, within nine months.

The Brown site, first of the three sought by the district and under condemnation for almost four years, cannot be graded until Callan Builders are able to realign their section of old Edgemoor road. The road currently runs through the site, thus blocking the district in moving ahead on the grading.

Callan still seeks city approval on his development, therefore a delay of possibly a year faces the Brown site move. Meanwhile, trustees may designate the Webster school as the first of the three to be built.

Zita Corporation currently has completed 50 homes in the vicinity of the Brown site and is finishing other new dwellings at the rate of three a day.

Manager Decision ...2 Weeks

Daly City's new city manager should be named at the regular meeting of the council on Monday evening, October 20.

This was the word today from Mayor Michael DeBernardi, who said that the council would be ready to make its decision by that date.

There are six applicants left in the running for the post vacated last July by Howard Stites. One is acting City Manager George Watts, reported the inside choice for the appointment.

The council, DeBernardi said, has completed personal interviews with the applicants.

The announcement had been expected next Tuesday evening at the regular council session, but absence of councilman Bob St. Clair, on a road trip with the 49ers, has caused a delay.

The State Personnel Board screening committee, which aided the council in the manager quest, received 50 applications for the position. The state then forwarded 15 names to the council for final screening.

School Unification

Committee studying unification in Jefferson High School District last Thursday night here discussed the basic financial aspects of consolidation. The educational advantages of unification will be reported at the November 20 meeting of the group.

Gist of the financial report will be published next week.

Bepler Street Parking Lot Aids Merchants

First big step by the council to improve off-street parking facilities for Mission street merchants was taken Monday with the opening of a public parking lot on Bepler street next to the Daly City Post Office.

The city is leasing the lot for $60 a month from Arthur Haskins. Shoppers may park there for two hours at a stretch from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily. The lot is open for parking from 6 p.m. to 2 a.m. with no time limits. Vehicles found in the lot from 2 a.m. to 9 a.m. will be towed away.

Councilman Edward Dennis and Francis Pacelli spearheaded the Bepler street project—the first of many planned to aid merchants and their customers.

Trustees OK Land 'Swap' In Sharp Park

The high school board Monday night accepted $232,000 from the State Highway Division for four acres of district-owned land fronting the proposed high school in Sharp Park.

Trustees will use the money to purchase the same number of acres from some 20 property owners along San Mateo avenue south of the planned school.

The "swap" between the district and state satisfied both parties. The Division of Highways needs the strip fronting the freeway for right-of-way and a frontage road.

Supt. Ed Morgan of the high school district said that all two of the 20 property owners on San Mateo avenue are agreeable to district offers for their land.

San Mateo avenue will be the main entrance to the school, which is expected to open in 1961.

Architect Mario Ciampi, who designed Westmoor and several Jefferson Elementary District schools, expects to have master plans for the Sharp Park school ready this month.

35 New Residents Attend Westlake Association Meeting

About thirty-five new residents of Westlake turned out for the "New Homeowners Night," staged by Westlake Improvement Association at its regular meeting Monday.

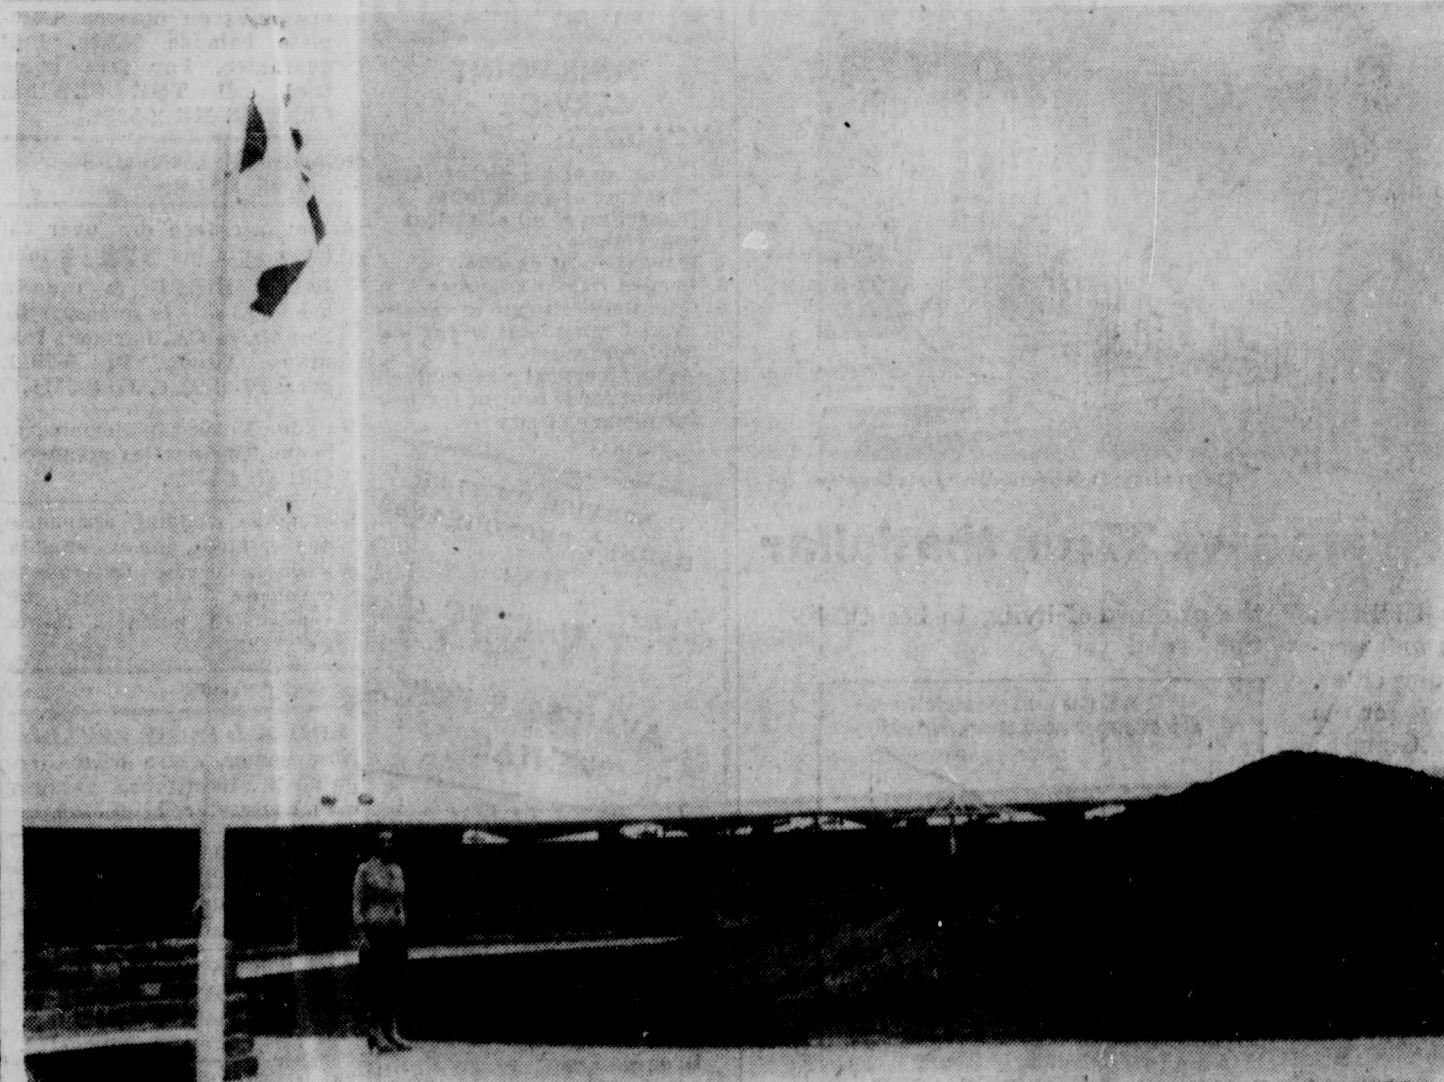

The session was delayed 30 minutes by the late arrival of directors Emory Schoolcraft and Virgil Anderson. Anderson was slightly shaken up in a car accident in San Francisco earlier in the evening.

Directors in main agenda business decided to reactivate the association's freeway committee to pursue state progress on selection of a route in Daly City. The board also went on record against commercial outdoor billboard signs in Westlake, and they ordered a meeting with Northgate Transit company to discuss the transportation needs of residents in the Palisades.

Girl Chasing Dog Struck By Auto, But She's Lucky

A Daly City girl suffered minor bruises last Friday 6:50 p.m. when she was struck by a slow-moving auto on the San Jose-Flournoy intersection.

Officer Robert Crocker said the driver, John Philpotts, a South San Francisco Airlines worker, was not at fault since the girl, Debra Lee Peters of Flournoy, did not look for the dog as she dashed out into the street to catch her dog. The girl was released after examination at Junipero Serra hospital.

OLPH Awaits Columbus Day Dinner Event

Plans have been completed for the big Columbus Day dinner at Our Lady of Perpetual Help parish, this Saturday evening starting at 6 o'clock.

The meal will be served in old-fashioned Italian family-style. Heading the offerings is spaghetti and meat balls. The auditorium will be decorated to carry out the "sunny Italy" theme. Music and Italian songs will complete the program.

Cost of the dinner, sponsored by the Holy Name Society, is $1.50 and 50 cents for children. Guy Gargiulo, dinner chairman, said all proceeds will be used for parish building improvements.

FACTS VS. PROPOSITION 16

Proposition 16 on the November election ballot—the discriminatory measure seeking to impose a tax on California's non-profit schools—has brought opposition from the state's outstanding leaders.

The language of Justus F. Craemer, president of the California Press Association and past president of the California Newspaper Publishers Association, clearly pinpoints, he feels, the reasons why "no" votes should be cast to defeat this impractical proposal.

Says Craemer, state chairman of Citizens United Against Taxing Schools:

"Proposition 16 would impose a punitive tax on non-profit elementary and high schools. Its purpose is to curtail their enrollment and force many to close. Either result would raise individual taxes by shifting to the state part of the tremendous cost of educating California's 340,000 non-profit school students.

"The state controller reports that these non-profit schools, by absorbing the cost of educating these students, REDUCE public school taxes $118,000,000 annually—$346 a year for every student enrolled.

"This measure, if passed, would force every school district to build more classrooms and hire more teachers to educate thousands of children being taught—in subjects prescribed by the State Education Code—without one cent of state support.

Craemer is just one of score of California leaders urging "no" on Proposition 16.

The facts he offers indicate the measure is doomed—if voters exercise their privilege intelligently.

SALES TAX VOTE... WHEN?

Daly City residents are impatiently waiting for an opportunity to vote on sales tax—a promise that seems to be fading in the passing months.

The city council, split 3-2 on the decision to put the issue a vote of the people, wanted the levy decided once and for all in the November general election. But county supervisors nixed down this request, saying the ballot was too long with political races to include local issues.

In all probability, the council will wait until the school election next May to put sales tax to a vote here. This, they claim, will be less costly. And besides, the council says, it seems to be no hurry because sales tax, even if defeated May, won't end here until the end of the fiscal year—next June.

The delay on deciding sales tax, it seems, isn't bothering the council. But residents are still paying the levy and their protests are becoming louder.

The council, if its intentions are sincere, could set up a special election on sales tax. The longer the council waits to vote on the issue, the more suspect it becomes in the minds of the public.

Putting off until tomorrow what can be done today is bad political philosophy.

Sales tax, remember, never was presented for the people to decide here. It passed only by 3-2 council verdict.

Since then, the council has changed faces, and the majority now want to repeal the levy.

This majority is backed by hundreds of average citizens and businessmen. This anti-sales tax force has not changed its opinion one iota.

The council would be wise not to forget its obligation.

National Award For Westmoor Student Paper

A first place rating was given to Westmoor High School's newspaper "Rampage" when it was judged in national competition for its spring 1958 issues.

Entering the National Scholastic Press Association's critical survey with 978 other schools in the United States, the Rampage moved up a position from its second place rating given in the fall of 1957 when the newspaper entered national competition for the first time.

Excellent ratings were given to the newspaper for its comprehensive coverage of curricular, co-curricular, and administrative news as well as its style of writing for its news pages and sports pages. An editorial on how to keep costs down for senior proms received special commendation.

Cited as weakness in the paper was its one line headlines and inadequate proofreading. "Rampage's" honor rating will be published in the December issue of Scholastic Press magazine along with the other newspapers in the various classifications according to size of the school, frequency of issue and type of print.

This term's editors, are Chan Keith and Gary Wanger. Last term's editors were Linda Logan and Julie Huculak, both June 1958 graduates. Advisor to the paper is Mrs. Doris Lindfors.

Girl Scout Leaders Open New Calendar With Project Talks

Girl Scout leaders of the Parkview-Sterling Park neighborhood held the first meeting of the 1958-59 calendar last week at the Scout House.

Mrs. Hilda Heagney, chairman, outlined the various projects planned.

A plea was made for more volunteer workers in the United Crusade door-to-door drive which starts on October 20. The Girl Scouts receive almost all of their working capital from this source.

There was a brief discussion on the Girl Scout calendar sale which starts in November.

The troop organizer, Mrs. Anita Spinetti, reported the organization of six new Brownie troops. She also asked any 4th-grade Brownies who are without a troop at present to phone her for information at PL 5-2776.

Mrs. B. Button, chairman of the May Folk Dance Festival, reported that an appreciation gift of a split-leaf philodendron had been made to Mrs. June Strong, instructor of the folk dances. The gift was donated by Moe Masini.

Mrs. S. Steinbeck, chairman of the nominating committee, presented the name of Mrs. A. C. Liberato as a candidate for neighborhood chairman, since Mrs. Heagney's term expires in January. Mrs. Liberato was unanimously voted in as the new chairman. There are at present 127 registered adult Girl Scout members in the neighborhood.

Westmoor Art Students View SF Festival

The twelfth annual San Francisco art festival was the drawing card for the art department of Westmoor High school last Thursday. The festival, held this year across from Fisherman's Wharf, made an especially valuable field study because of the wide variety of work presented in all media.

Field trips of this type prove their educational worth in a motivational way because students use the knowledge gained in helping them produce their work in the current modes of artistic expression.

The trip was made by students from Robert Nissen's design and materials and advanced art classes and Robert Orth's graphic art class.

Something For Everyone

By Samuel Chandler
City Librarian

Yesterday a little girl came to my diminutive office in the library at 6351 Mission. "I gotta find what some square named Emerson said about books," she declared. "Can you help me?" I helped her alright, but I have thought since about the pertinence of Emerson's theory of books. It is best summarized in an oration he delivered before a group of students in 1837.

"The theory of books is noble," said he. "The scholar of the first age received into him the world a round; brooded thereon; gave it the new arrangement of his own mind, and uttered it again. It came unto him life; it went out from him truth. It came to him short-lived actions; it went out from him immortal thoughts. It came to him business; it went from him poetry. It was dead fact now it is quick thought. It can stand, and it can go. It now endures; it now flies; it now inspires. Precisely in proportion to the depth of mind from which it issued, so high does it soar, so long does it sing."

There is nothing "square" about this. It is as modern as rock and roll and as true as the gospel. Everyday the scientists, teachers, musicians, writers, sportsmen, in short, the thinkers of our age, advance our world and thereby improve our lives by using the truths they have found recorded in books, on film, on wax.

Among the books that have come into the Daly City Public Libraries recently that are full of truths and inspiration are the following:

"To Plow with hope," by Donald K. Faris. A much needed account of the international war against poverty. Loren C. Eiseley's "Darwin's century: Evolution and the Men Who Discovered it." This book is virtually a journal of the journey of ideas from one mind to another, from one generation to another. It is full of the clashes and compromises that have helped to make our world.

"Great Pioneer Heroes," by Rater Brent. This is a book of thumbnail sketches of seven men who helped to penetrate the American frontier and fashion our destiny. Binstock, Louis. "The Road to Successful Living." The theme of this book is man; its villains are the false gods he worships. And the uses are many: to erect signposts, to fix landmarks, to hack our way through the tangled path to happiness.

Ferlinghetti, Lawrence. "A Coney Island of the Mind." Here a San Francisco poet mirrors our times and expresses an attitude toward them—that of the "beat generation." One reviewer has declared that in this book Ferlinghetti reflects one path of the modern world better than anyone who is writing.

A tourniquet should be used only in rare cases. Improper use can cause loss of a limb. A civil defense emergency handbook containing this and other vital information will be delivered to each home by the Boy Scouts on October 11.

JESD Requests Money To Build Two New Schools

Jefferson Elementary School District has filed justification documents for state funds to build two new elementary schools.

Trustees expect to have three new school sites delivered within 60 days. These are the Daniel Webster site in St. Francis Heights, and the Abe Lincoln and Thomas Edison sites in Westlake Unit 10 south of the Westmoor High school.

The Webster site purchase is part of the $715,000 "package" deal on three sites offered by Zita Corporation.

The Lincoln and Edison sites lie together on 23.5 acres and should be delivered to the district by early January. The state last week released $244,445 to the district for purchase of these sites. This allocation was approved by the state on December 16, 1957.

Trustees must decide later this month which two of the three sites will be built under the district's present eligibility for state funds.

Loaded Encinal Finishes Fast To Shade Frisky Jeff, 25-12

Jefferson High's revived varsity gridders battled lopsided favorite Encinal of Alameda down to the final gun here Friday before losing a well-played 25-12 argument.

The setback was the second straight for Coach Joe McGrath's Daly City preps, but they looked much better than they did in dropping their opener to Riordan by 21-0.

Encinal, knotted 12-all in the first period with four minutes left, uncorked two long passes to decision the Indians.

The East Bay squad, on paper, the better team, had gone either to the line or to the backfield.

Encinal's passing to the line, however, was not as effective as the Indians' running game.

Encinal's running game was the key to their victory. The Indians' defense was unable to stop the Indians' running game.

end Charles Harless meant the difference as three of the enemy scores came via this route. Encinal tallied early in the first quarter and led by 12-6 at halftime.

Guard Bob Nielson, a tiger both ways, gave Jeff a 6-6 tie late in the first quarter after he blocked a punt on the Encinal 1 and recovered. Ted Sailor then smashed off tackle for the Jeff score.

After a scoreless third period, Jeff made it 12-12 late in the game as all-purpose Pete Garcia shot 5 yards to cap a 45-yard march. White then took to the skies and scored two touchdowns.

McGrath was pleased with his team's defensive play and his "shifted" offense, geared around Garcia at tailback. The Indians ran from the T, with Jerry Kennedy at QB, and from the single wing, with Garcia carrying the hide for 75 ground yards.

The Indian line, McGrath said, was outstanding on defense, particularly in the second half.

Encinal, next Wednesday, will play the Indians at home. Jeff, on the other hand, will play the Indians at home.

secondary defense as they await their Peninsula League debut at home next week against Westmoor.

Jeff's line will find Vic Lewkowicz and Felix Valdez at ends, John Crane and Jim Drake at tackles, Bob Nielson and John Dean at guards, and Jerry Hauck at center.

McGrath has moved Ed Lavelle to fullback behind Jim Ahern and Soph Bob Woodrich to right halfback. Soph Ed Crowley and Nielson will work with Kennedy as linebackers.

TUESDAY EVENING Colma 7-8 Staff Invites Public To Annual 'Orientation' Program

Parents, guardians and friends of the students of the Colma School (7th and 8th grades), located at Hillside and Market streets in Daly City, are invited by the school faculty to come to the school at 7:30 on Tuesday evening, October 14, to participate in the second annual "Orientation to Colma School."

This opportunity for parents and others follows the completion of the unit in orientation to the school conducted with all students by social studies teachers during the first two weeks in September.

The evening's program, beginning in the multi-use room, will be organized to give parents and friends time to meet with and hear their youngsters' teachers as they explain matters regarding the school, its program and facilities.

The committee working on arrangements consists of seventh grade teachers Mrs. Elizabeth Keropian and Charles Britten; eighth grade teachers Mrs. Isabelle Cordellos and Robert Layton; homemaker teacher Miss Rosalie Zarzana and Dr. Lloyd Andrews, vice principal.

RAMS LOOK GOOD

Scrappy Westmoor Gridders Give Serra Rough Time -- Lose, 38-22

One hundred percent improved, according to Coach Pete Matisi, Westmoor High's varsity gridders gave tough Serra a real battle last Friday before losing a 38-22 decision on the winners' field.

The Rams, 32-6 losers to Carlmont two weeks ago, will be out to upset potent Riordan High this Friday. The game begins at Westmoor at 3 o'clock.

Riordan beat Jefferson, 21-0, and last week downed South San Francisco, 19-12. The Crusaders lost only to Pacifica, 13-6, in their opening game.

Against Serra, Westmoor tallied single touchdowns in the first, second and third quarters. Another 47-yard off tackle scoring run by Bob Roller was nullified by a penalty.

Serra led at the quarter marks, 12-7, 25-14 and 32-22. With Dave Simon at QB, Matisi's backfield ran very smoothly. Tom McHugh jolted 43 yards for one score, and Tom Dake and Roller both hit pay dirt on one-yard shots off tackle.

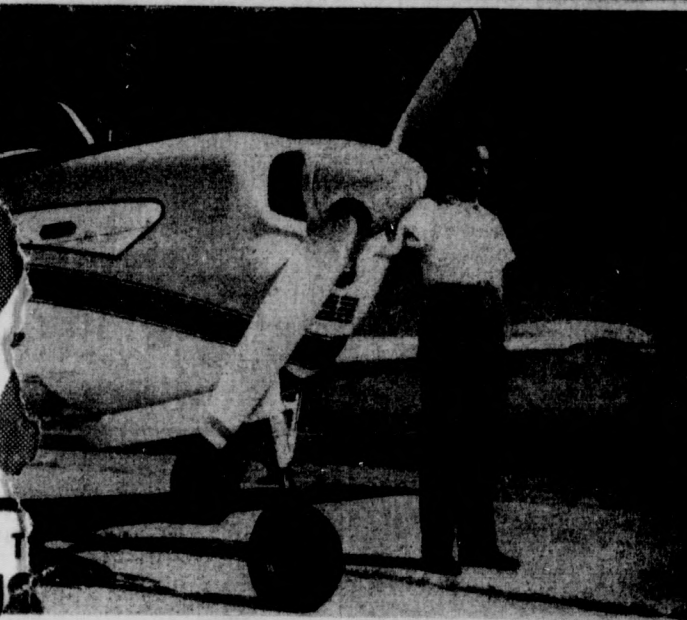

Matisi was pleased with the running of his starting backs and the halfback duty of sprinter Mike Joseph. Up front the coach voiced praise for junior tackle Jerry Evans, soph guard Roger Austin, guard Larry Siegel, and tackle Andy Saranchock. Austin took over for veteran Paul Gioni who suffered a hip pointer on the game's opening play. Gioni will be the lone regular missing against Riordan.

Westmoor's frosh-soph and potent varsity cross country squads posted wins over Lincoln of San Francisco here Monday.

The Ram varsity, anxious for its showdown with San Mateo this Thursday, downed the Links, 26-30. Lenny Bucelli of Westmoor took second behind Lincoln's Tony Turner. Winning time was 10:10, best of the year here.

Westmoor's frosh-soph won 20-40. Jim Bucelli was second for the Rams, followed by teammate John Blay. Lincoln's JV's won 15-47.
